

Virginia Fell, EA,

began her tax career with the IRS in July, 1971, in the Examination Division. During her tenure with the IRS she held numerous positions including Tax Auditor, Revenue Agent, and Manager of Tax Auditors and Revenue Agents in Omaha and Lincoln, NE, Walla Walla and Seattle, WA, and Albuquerque, New Mexico. Before retiring from the IRS in September, 2003, she had the unique opportunity of serving as the Deputy Tax Attaché assigned to Tokyo, Japan. Virginia joined the ranks of Enrolled Agent in 2004. She eventually opened a small practice in Texas catering mainly to small farmers. She also dabbles in representation before the IRS. Through her association with Pat Jenkins, she became a member of NMSEA. Pat and Virginia joined forces and opened a satellite office in Edgewood, NM for the 2008 filing season. This association continued until the end of 2016, when Virginia decided to retire again. However she continues to operate her small firm in Texas, lending her support to other firms in Albuquerque, and enjoying the comradery provided by NMSEA.
